No 100

My Lord.

In continuation of the foregoing despatch I have to state that I regard the appointment of a High Commissioner for Formosa as a step in the interest of trade. The Island is rich in coal, sulphur, camphor, and Petroleum; to say nothing of other products. I

the commencement of this Japanese enterprise I urged upon the Yamen strongly the folly of leaving so much wealth untouched, and as your Lordship will see in Enclosure 8 of the foregoing despatch I have — availed myself of the High Commissioner's nomination to recall attention to the matter.

The development of the Camphor trade in particular has been sorely hindered during the last five years.

I have the honor to be with the highest respect,

My Lord,

your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant

Thomas Francis Wade.
