Sir,

H. M. S. "Dwarf" arrived from Lang-kiaou on the 17th Instant. By the news which she brought, it appeared that the Japanese were in possession of the south end of Formosa, up to the "Hong Kong" of the charts, (perhaps Fung-kiang 風港 or 鳳港) on the West Coast, and (I should suppose) to about the same latitude on the East Coast. This would would give them a tract of about seventeen miles long and eight or ten broad. They had a Camp on the East Coast about four miles northward from South Cape. The Chinese villagers were friendly to them.

A Chinese Imperial — Commissioner, Shin (沈), the Chinese Superintendent of the Foochow Arsenal, arrived at Taiwanfoo from the mainland on the 17th. The Asistant Commissioner, Pwan, (潘) had arrived a day or two earlier. With him came Messrs Giquel and De Segonzac, formerly of the Arsenal. Three or four steamers steamers came with them, but no land force worth mentioning. To-day I hear that some three of the steamers have gone back again.

To-day two Chinese steamers passed Takow going to the South-ward. It appears that they were bound for Langkiaou, and had on board the Imperial Asistant Commissioner, and the Taoutae of Taiwan, and Messrs Giquel and Segonzac.

I have heard that the chief Imperial Commissioner's flag bears the words 代天巡狩, implying very high rank and large powers.

Your obedient servant,

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose copies of the undermentioned Notifications:—

(1) By the United States Consul for Amoy, &c., date 16th June; requiring his fellow-citizens to withdraw from the Japanese expedition.

(2) By the Imperial Assistant Commissioner, (who is also Treasurer of Fokien), and the Taoutai of Taiwan, posted at Takow on the 21st or 22nd of June; in regard to the Japanese expedition.

My desp. No. 11 of the 21st Ult. mentioned an expedition then being made to Lang-kiaou by the Assistant Commissioner and the Taoutai, accompanied by Messrs. Giquel Giquel and De Segonzac. They have returned hither, coming by land and arriving on the 30th Ultimo. They appear to have had a decided diplomatic or administrative success. The chiefs and other representatives of fifteen out of the eighteen tribes or villages of the extreme south appeared before the mandarins (at Lang-kiaou), with heads shaven and wearing the queue in the Chinese way, acknowledging themselves to belong to China, kneeling before the Mandarins, and giving engagements to protect shipwrecked people, whether Chinese or foreign. A silver tablet and a red jacket was given to each of the chiefs.

A somewhat similar success has been obtained on the East side of the island. A vessel sent thither has brought to Taiwanfoo several chiefs from the Pe-lam or Pei-nam country.

There were discussions at Lang-kiaou between the Chinese authorities and General Saigo. He raised the question of the expenses of the expedition. It was understood that the General would for the present cease operations, withdraw from any camps outside of the Baw-tan country, (except those at Lang-kiaou), and ask his Government to send no more troops. Some Japanese from Lang-kiaou are here, about to proceed in a Chinese Government steamer to Shanghai.

The Taoutai of Taiwan is about to visit the north and north-east of Formosa.

Your obedient Servant

here ever since the third month (April-May) and has not been withdrawn; and they also wish to take vengrance on the — inhabitants of Pelam and the neighbowring villages, on the alleged grounds of their having plundered a certain Japanese ship which was wrecked. If the Commissioner have received the Command of the Emperor to come over to Taiwan and afsist the Imperial Commissioner Shên in arranging the affair.

Now, the Bawtan savages, who who killed the Lewchewans are certainly barbarous murderers; but as the place where they live is under Chinese government, if the treaty is to be observed, they of course ought to be punished by China. As regards Pelam and the other villages; the — Japanese who were shipwrecked there last year were rescued and protected and delivered to the Mandarins by Ch'ên An-shêng (Tan An-sing) the local chief and others, and were sent back to their country. Pelam therefore has not merely given no offence to the Japanese, but has even done them a kindness. If one looks at what is right and reasonable, one must Suppose that the latter will not proceed to harass unoffending people. We, the Commissioner and the Taotai, are now going together by steamer to Langkiao to have a personal interview with the Japanese commander, General Saigo, and reason with him. We certainly shall not suffer him to go to other villages.

We therefore issue this notification distinctly ordering the headman of each village concerned, to give our Commands to the inhabitants of the savage villages and the like, to go on quietly with their daily occupations
