Sir,

I give a few notes — re-regarding the Japanese expedition to Formosa.

The Taotae left — Taiwanfoo on the 11th Instant by land for Takow, and left Takow on the 12th with two small steamers for the Pescadores, where he would take a larger steamer.

steamer or steamers, and proceed to Tamsuy, Kelung, and Saw-o Bay. He hoped to obtain — submission (or recognition of their Chinese status) from the aborigines of Ke-lai, a place or tract to the southward of Saw-o Bay, about is here Chockeday is marked in the Charts. There was also a case of alleged plunderings at Kelai, of a junk or cargo-boat (or other vessel) employed by Japanese, which he would enquire into. He was to take some troops to the North of

of the island.

A small civil Mandarin was left — stationed at Langkiaou by the superior authorities about the 2nd of June.

The officer known as the Marshal, from the United States Consulate at Amoy, went to — Langkiaou about the 2nd of June. His fellow citizens did not return with him, alleging, as I hear, that operations were suspended, or that there were no hostilities. I hear that Mr. G. M. Thompson, the United States Consular Agent at Takow, wishes to go to Langkiaou in regard to this matter.
