No 206

Peking
16th October 1874

My Lord,

The end of the discussion between China and Japan is by no means nearer, & that the High Commissioner has intimated to the Tsung li Yamên his intention to leave Peking unless before the 19th inst he receive an answer to his last note more satisfactory than those so far addressed to him.

my telegram of the 9th October will have informed Your Lordship that I have done my best to bring about arbitration, and it is still just possible that by the intervention of Monsieur de Leffroy and myself the Chinese may be induced to grant conditions under which the Japanese will consent to withdraw their troops from Formosa. But I do not venture to reckon upon this with any certainty because I do not sufficiently understand the question with which the Japanese have to deal at home. Still, they seem to imply that if their honour can be covered, they will withdraw their troops. But they have been until recently very reticent, and a formal expose of the situation made to me two days since by the High Commissioner has not helped me much towards a conclusion. I think war more likely than peace, and as if the Chinese were set upon their own destruction. The Tientsin authorities are refusing refusing passports to persons said to be charged with despatches for their Ministers.

My memoranda and correspondence on the subject form a volume. The papers are copied ready for transmission, but I prefer to hold them back for a mail, as I shall then be able to lay the story before Your Lordship with greater completeness

I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
With the highest respect,
Your Lordship's
most obedient humble Servant
Thomas Francis Wade.
