1. The enclosure, a comparison between SWNCC 150/4/A and a preliminary report by Working Committee No. 1, Far Eastern Advisory Commission, of which Mr. Evatt, Australian Delegate, is Chairman, is circulated for consideration by the Committee with a view to providing guidance to the United States representative on the Far Eastern Advisory Commission when the preliminary report is presented to that Commission for approval.

2. Final agreement on certain paragraphs of the Working Committee report has not been reached by the Working Committee and may have to be resolved by the Commission at their meeting on Wednesday, 28 November 1945. The paragraphs in question are paragraphs 2 (b) and 3 (d) of the Economic Section (pages 14 and 16, respectively).

3. If final agreement is reached by the Working Committee on these points at issue prior to the SWNCC meeting set for Tuesday, 27 November 1945, resultant changes, if any, will be circulated to the Committee either prior to or at the meeting.

ENCLOSURE

UNITED STATES INITIAL POST-SURRENDER POLICY FOR JAPAN

SWNCC 150/4/A (Approved by President)	PRELIMINARY DRAFT BY WORKING COMMITTEE NO. 1, FEAC
Purpose of This Document.
This document is intended as a statement of general initial policies relating to Japan after surrender. Following Presidential approval, it will be distributed to appropriate United States departments and agencies for their guidance. It is recognized that this document does not deal with all matters relating to the occupation of Japan requiring policy determinations. Policies upon such matters as are not included or not fully covered herein will be dealt with in subsequent papers.	This report contains a recommendation from the Committee as to a statement of the general policy which should be applied to Japan during the initial post-surrender period. It does not deal with all matters relating to the occupation of Japan which require policy determinations and it is based on the "United States Initial Post-Surrender Policy for Japan", issued to the Commission as FEAC 2. The extent to which the decisions and recommendations of the Far Eastern Advisory Commission will be given effect will be determined in the Terms of Reference which will also indicate the nature and extent of the reserve authority of the Supreme Commander

(b) To bring about the eventual establishment of a peaceful and responsible government which will respect the rights of other states and will support the objectives of the United States as reflected in the ideals and principles of the Charter of the United Nations. The United States desires that this government should conform as closely as may be to principles of democratic self-government but it is not the responsibility of the Allied Powers to impose upon Japan any form of government not supported by the freely expressed will of the people.

These objectives will be achieved by the following principle means:

(a) Japan's sovereignty will be limited to the islands of Honshu, Hokkaido, Kyushu, Shikoku and such minor outlying islands as may be determined, in accordance with the Cairo Declaration and other agreements to which the United States is or may be a party.

(b) To bring about the earliest possible establishment of a democratic and peaceful government which will carry out its international responsibilities, respect the rights of other states, and support the objectives of the United Nations Organization. Such government in Japan should be established in accordance with the freely expressed will of the Japanese people.

These objectives will be achieved by the following principle means:

(a) Japan's sovereignty will be limited to the islands of Honshu, Hokkaido, Kyushu, Shikoku and such minor outlying islands as may be determined, in accordance with the Cairo Declaration and other agreements among nations which have participated in the war against Japan.

PART II - ALLIED AUTHORITY.

1. Military Occupation.

There will be a military occupation of the Japanese home islands to carry into effect the surrender terms and further the achievement of the ultimate objectives stated above. The occupation shall have the character of an operation in behalf of the principal allied powers acting in the interests of the United Nations at war with Japan. For that reason, participation of the forces of other nations that have taken a leading part in the war against Japan will be welcomed and expected. The occupation forces will be under the command of a Supreme Commander designated by the United States.

Although every effort will be made, by consultation and by constitution of appropriate advisory bodies, to establish policies for the conduct of the occupation and the control of Japan which will satisfy the principal Allied powers, in the event of any differences of opinion among them, the policies of the United States will govern.

2. Relationship to Japanese Government.

1. Military Occupation.

There will be a military occupation of the Japanese home islands to carry into effect the surrender terms and further the achievement of the ultimate objectives stated above. The occupation shall have the character of an operation in behalf of the powers that have actively participated in the war against Japan. The principle of participation in the occupation of Japan by forces of these nations is affirmed. For that reason, participation of the forces of other nations that have taken a leading part in the war against Japan will be welcomed and expected. The occupation forces will be under the command of a Supreme Commander designated by the United States.

In view of the present character of Japanese society and the desire of the United States to attain its objectives with a minimum commitment of its forces and resources, the Supreme Commander will exercise his authority through Japanese governmental machinery and agencies, including the Emperor, to the extent that this satisfactorily furthers United States objectives. The Japanese Government will be permitted, under his instructions, to exercise the normal powers of government in matters of domestic administration. This policy, however, will be subject to the right and duty of the Supreme Commander to require changes in governmental machinery or personnel or to act directly if the Emperor or other Japanese authority does not satisfactorily meet the requirements of the Supreme Commander in effectuating the surrender terms. PART III - POLITICAL

1. Disarmament and Demilitarization.

Disarmament and demilitarization are the primary tasks of the military occupation and shall be carried out promptly and with determination. Every effort shall be made to bring home to the Japanese people the part played by the military and naval leaders, and those who collaborated with them, in bringing about the existing and future distress of the people.

Japan is not to have an army, navy, airforce, secret police organization, or any civil aviation. Japan's ground, air and naval forces shall be disarmed and disbanded and the Japanese Imperial General Headquarters, the General Staff and all secret police organizations shall be dissolved. Military and naval materiel, military and naval vessels and military and naval installations, and military, naval and civilian aircraft shall be surrendered and shall be disposed of as required by the Supreme Commander.
