品川領事へ返報

Nagasaki, May 5th 1874.

Consul Shinagawa

Shanghai.

In dealing with the natives of Southern Aboriginal Formosa the Japanese government, animated by the deepest feeling of friendship for China, has been guided by precedents. But, since it is known that H. I. C. M.'s government is anxious to discuss the subject, the departure of Minister Yanagiwara for Peking, which had been temporarily postponed, shall be hastened, and he will be ordered to leave by next steamer for China, proceed with all possible speed to his post, and confer with the Tsung-li-Yamen.

Should, however, China prefer to send an ambassador to Tokei, he would be received with the highest consideration and honors.
