Consulate of the United States
[illegible] April 1st 1867.

Hon. W. H. Seward.
Secretary of State
Washington D.C.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to your immediate knowledge an extract of a Dispatch just received (Enclosure No. 1) from Mr. McPhail of Formosa, and accompanying it the fearful intelligence of the murder of thirteen Americans.

Extract of a dispatch from Formosa

Murder of 13 Americans

I shall leave at once for the seat of the occurrence availing myself of the presence at Foochow, of the U.S. Gunboat "Ashuelot", to strengthen my hands in the measures I may be compelled to take to obtain redress and compensation from the local authorities of the Island.

Consul leaves at once for Formosa.

I advise the Minister at Peking of the affair asking

Advised U.S. Minister at Peking

asking for instructions as to future steps.

This painful news reached me as I was furnishing a special report of the Coolie cases tried in this Court, during the Quarter ended March 31st 1867. which I had hoped to send you by this mail; I shall do so by the next French mail.

This case appears however in the usual Quarterly Report sent to the Department through the Consulate General
