ourteen miles distant:
The Hartford remained in company with the henandoah and Wyoming at Osaka, until Our Minister had completed his business there; when, On the 20th. Inst. the Hartford and Wyoming ailed by way of the Inland Sea of Japan for Nagasaki. After stopping about 16 (Sixteen ours for Target practice, these Ships arrived at Nagasaki On the 23d. Instant. I shall sail o morrow for Shanghai, accompanied by the Wyoming:

The Shenandoah (2d Rate) Captain J. R. Goldsborough, Commanding, as reported in my monthly Report for the month of April, sailed from Yokohama, on the 29th of April, with the American Minister and his Suite On board and accompanied by the Wyoming, she arrived at Osaka on the 1st. of May, where Our Minister was landed with all the usual honours, and Escorted by the full Marine Guards of both vessels: A portion of this force remained on shore, under the Command of Lieutenant

Meade

Meade, the Marine Officer of the Shenandoah, during the whole of the residence of the Minister, there.

Captain Goldsborough, and a number of the Officers of the Shenandoah and Wyoming, accompanied General Van Valkenburgh, to the reception given him by the Tycoon, which is said to have been of a satisfactory and agreeable nature.

On the 20th Inst: The Shenandoah — Captain Goldsborough, returned to Yokohama with our Minister: Her present Station is in the Waters of Japan.

The Ashuelot (3d. Rate) Commander Febiger Commanding under date of April 26th, reports from Amoy his return from a visit, to the ports of Tamsui, Taiwan-foo, and Takao, Loang-Kiao Bay; and the scene of the late murder of the Crew of the Rover, also the Pescadores Islands: Since the above mentioned date, no advices have been received from the Ashuelot.

The Chinese Authorities of Formosa

stated

stated positively to Commander Febiger that ll the Officers and Crew of the Rover, Except One Chinaman, were murdered by the Aborignals:

The Wachusett, (3d Rate) Commander Shufeldt, arrived at Shanghai on the 24th of April, from a Cruise to the Southward, during which she visited Foo-Chow, and Ning-po: - At both of these places upon Examination of the Engines, new Cracks were discovered in both Cranks: A board of Survey upon her Engines was convened at Shanghai by Commander Shufeldt, to Examine these injuries, which are Considered of so Serious a nature, that I have found it advisable, to go to Shanghai my Self to learn the actual condition of the Engines Of the Wachusett. Since the 1st of May the Wachusett has remained in the Harbour of Shanghai:

Captain Shufeldt reports on the 11th Of May, that the "Nien-fi" or rebels, have disappeared from the Banks of the Yang-Tze River

No advices of the movements of the Monocacy 3d Rate, Commander Carter Commanding, have been received, since the date of my last monthly Report.

The Wyoming (3d Rate) Lieut. Commander Carpenter, Commanding, as reported in my monthly Report for the month of April, left Yokohama on the 29th ultimo, in company with the Shenandoah, to convey our Minister and his Suite to Osaka: As above mentioned she left Osaka, in company with this ship on the 20th Instant, and arrived in Nagasaki on the 23d Instant.

The Store Ship "Supply" (4th Rate) — U.S. Vol. Lieut. Commdr. E. Conroy, Commanding arrived at Shanghai from Hong-Kong, on the 30th ulto. and after provisioning the Wachusett, left there on the 12th Instant for Nagasaki, where she arrived on the 25th May.

The "Supply" will remain for the present at Nagasaki, a central position for supplying the vessels of this Squadron, employed at the North

On the 22d of April last, as I informed the Department in my Despatch No: 38. — Current Series, dated April 29th, 1867, I despatched orders to Hong Kong, for one of the vessels of the Squadron to go to Brunai, Borneo, to investigate the circumstances connected with the burning of the Consulate there on the 24th of March last. No further information has been received on that subject, except from the Consul Mr. Moses himself, writing from Labuan, who confirms the report.

I am glad to be able to report that the health of the Squadron continues good.

The only death reported during the month is that of William Myers, ordinary seaman of the U.S.S. "Shenandoah," who died at Osaka May 7th of Dysentery: .

I have the Honour to be Very Respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
