Takao, Island of Formosa. On the 8th, they arrived at the latter Port, and having taken an Interpreter on board, proceeded that night to the Southward, and next morning the the Department in my No. 53 Current Series of 1867. of date June

The Savages there being inaccessible, by reason of the Wild nature of the Country, I proceeded that night to Takao, and arriving there on the 14th day before June 13th. 1867.

Shanghai in company with the Wyoming rived at this port. I expected to meet here the Inquiry, and the additional Gun-Boats ordered to the Squadron, but was disappointed to find, that they had not arrived, and that there was no intelligence of any of them.

The U.S. Wachusett (2d Rate) Commr Schufeldt, having materially damaged her Engines, lay here at Shanghai, since May 1st Inst. The necessary Repairs are being made as fast as possible, and will be completed I trust within two Weeks from this time.

The Shenandoah

kohama on the 18th June, and was to start, about the 21st of June with an Minister on board for the Western Coast of Japan to
