No. 205.

Anson Burlingame, Esqr. Department of State
&c. &c. &c. Washington, 10th July 1867

Sir:

I have received your despatch of the 18th of April No. 135 referring to the departure of Mr. Lord Consul at Ningpo, to the services of that officer and to the need of appropriations for the Consulate.

It is hoped that Congress at its next session will make suitable provision for the Ningpo office. Should this happen, Mr. Lord's very valuable services at that port will be remembered in connection with the nomination of an incumbent; and for the present, I request that you will convey to him the acknowledgment of the Department for the ability and fidelity which have marked the discharge of the responsible duties with which he has been entrusted.

I am,
Sir,
Your obedient servant
William H. Seward

No. 206

Anson Burlingame, Esqr. Department of State
&c. &c. &c. Washington, 15th July 1867

Sir:-

The Department has received a despatch of the 1st of April last, from Mr. Le Gendre, the United States Consul at Amoy, accompanied by an extract from a letter of a Mr. McPhail, of Formosa, on the subject of the wreck of the American barque "Rover" on a shoal near that Island and the subsequent murder by the savages of thirteen out of fourteen of her crew. Mr. Le Gendre says that he was about to embark in the United States steamer "Ashuelot" for the scene of the disaster for the purpose of enquiring into the case, that he had written to you and had asked instructions in regard to it. The directions to you upon the subject contained in my No 202 of the 20th ult of last month are repeated.

I am Sir.
Your obedient servant
William H. Seward
