Japanese expedition to Formosa

No 6.

Consular Agency for the United States of America
Taiwanfoo 12 May 1874

Sir,

I have to report the arrival of the Japanese forces at a place on the S.W. Coast of Formosa called Lankiau. the troops are being landed and are building a settlement, fortified by Earth works.

I expect the Japanese steamer "Nepaul" at Takao today, when I hope to gain more detailed information.

The British Gunboat "Hornet" with the British Consul have visited Lankiau.

I do not think this movement on the part of the Japanese will interfere with trade for the present at Either Taiwanfoo or Takao, although the Officials here are very anxious as to the result.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Hon J. C. B. Davis
Asst. Secretary of State
Washington D.C.

Sir,

I have to report that by the arrival of the British Gunboat 'Hornet' from Formosa yesterday I learn from trustworthy sources that the Japanese expedition to punish the savages on the eastern shore of that island have occupied Lan Kiaw on its South west Coast.

It is my opinion they intend to hold the savage territory if possible.

The Chinese officials here say that only about half of the island belongs to their Empire, and yet they appear to be much embarrassed by the movements of the Japanese.

A number of Americans accompany the expedition.

Among them C. W. LeGendre former Consul at this port, Lieut Commander Douglas Cassel U.S.N., Mr Edward House of New York and Col — Wasson formerly of the United States Army.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your obedient servant
J J Henderson
U.S. Consul.
