JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.

Message from Dulles referred to in paragraph 2 has now been delivered by United States Embassy. Text is as follows. Begins.

2. There is no foundation whatever for report that I have made secret arrangement with Japanese Government for its recognition of and making peace treaty with Chinese Nationalist Government and have so advised Republican senators. The press story seemed designed to embarrass by forcing public denial which could be used to create Senate opposition to treaty ratification. Two Republican senators whose names were involved in story both assured me that they never made any such statement as attributed to them.

3. There are counterpart stories that United Kingdom Chargé Tokyo has obtained secret assurance that Japanese Government will not deal with Nationalist China. Ends.
