SECRET

FOREIGN OFFICE, S.W.1.

19th October, 1951.

I am sorry to have been so long in replying to your letter to Charles Johnston of the 20th September (119/1203/51), in which you enquired whether there was any letter, message or record of a conversation which could be shown to Sebald as evidence that Dulles had agreed in June this year that Japan alone must decide which Chinese Government she would recognise.

2. Dening's letter to Rob Scott of the 8th October (11910/1259/51) has since arrived but, for the sake of the record, I should perhaps list the evidence for which you asked. The record of Mr. Dulles' conversation with the Secretary of State on the 8th June (FJ 1022/547), a copy of which was sent to Tokyo under a compliments slip of the 14th June, shows that at that time Mr. Dulles was concerned that the Allied Powers should not by the Peace Treaty in any way prejudice Japan's chance of developing relations with the Chinese mainland. A copy of this record (which is unagreed) was given to the United States Delegation before they left for Washington. I think this conversation read with the agreed statement on Chinese participation (Intel No. 144 of the 26th June) and Mr. Dulles' personal message to the Secretary of State of the 21st June (I enclose a copy) state in terms the Agreement reached before Article 26 of the Peace Treaty was accepted by His Majesty's Government and the United States Government. The most convincing piece of evidence is the personal message of the 21st June, of which no copy seems to have been sent to Tokyo. I can only think that it must have been overlooked, due to pressure of work at that time.

3. Should it ever be necessary there could be no objection to Sebald being shown any of these documents.

(C. P. Scott)
