My telegram No. 1332 /~ of 14th November:/ Japan's future relations with Formosa _/ paragraph 4.

Following is draft statement of principles referred to..

/~ Begins _/.

The following points have been agreed at official level on behalf of the Department of State and of the Foreign Office for submission to their respective Secretaries of State:

(1) The two Governments are agreed that it is important to continue to maintain a common front toward Japan on this question as they have on other questions throughout the Japanese Peace Treaty negotiations.

(2) Both Governments are still of opinion that Japan's future attitude towards China must necessarily be for determination by Japan itself in the exercise of the sovereign and independent status contemplated by the Peace Treaty.

(3) In particular both Governments recognise the desirability of avoiding any action which at a future date might enable Japan to claim that her attitude to China had been determined for her by one or more of the Allied Powers before she could make the decision herself as an independent sovereign state on the coming into force of the Peace Treaty.

(4) If, in view of the importance to Japan of regularising her relations with the authorities in Formosa, the Japanese Government wish, before the Peace Treaty comes into force, to engage in preliminary discussions with the Chinese Nationalist Government for this purpose, the United States Government and His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom would have no objection to such action on the part of the Government of Japan providing that any Treaty or Agreement arising from such preliminary discussions were not concluded until after the Multilateral Peace Treaty had come into force.
