FOREIGN OFFICE, S.W.1.

SECRET

28th November, 1951.

With reference to Foreign Office telegram No. 1719 to Paris of the 20th November, I enclose a copy of a letter which the Secretary of State has had from Mr. Acheson about Japanese relations with the Chinese Nationalists.

The possibility of the United States putting pressure on the Japanese to recognise Nationalist China was referred to by Kenneth Younger in the debate in the House of Commons on the 26th November on the Japanese Peace Treaty Bill. In reply, the President of the Board of Trade, in winding up the debate, said: "We have no reason whatever to suppose that the U. S. Government will do otherwise than leave it to the Japanese people and the Japanese Government to decide upon its own relations with that Government".

I am sending copies of this letter to Sterndale Bennett, Lamb, Tomlinson, and Jacob-Larkcom.

(C. H. Johnston)

Sir E. Dening,
TOKYO.
