Addressed to Foreign Office telegram No. 1772 of 14th December
Repeated for information to Washington

My immediately preceding telegram and my telegram No. 1769: The Two Chinas. F 3 10310

Report contained in my immediately preceding telegram is today confirmed in G.H.Q. intelligence summary which gives the source as the Japanese Foreign Office liaison.

2. It seems probable that under United States pressure the Japanese Government have already decided, or are about to decide to conclude a treaty with Taipeh. Further colour is lent to this by the announcement which though unconfirmed, appears to be authoritative that the Japanese Government are preparing to send Ken Inukai, to Taipeh as a special envoy "to improve relations with Nationalist China". Inukai, son of the former Premier, is a political jobber of the type likely to be sent on a mission of this sort.

Foreign Office please pass to Washington as my telegram No. 110.

[Repeated to Washington]
