Hong Kong (Immediate)

Japanese Prime Minister's letter to Mr. Dulles.

Initial public reaction which has so far appeared in the Press has been much as expected, ranging from an enthusiastic endorsement on the Right, through accusations of rashness and secretiveness, to down right denunciation on the Left.

2. Most interesting comment comes from the Secretary General of the Liberal Party who is reported to have claimed that the decision was "most appropriate and proper" since it coincided with the agreement reached on the China issue by Mr. Churchill and President Truman. Mr. Masuda also expressed satisfaction, according to reports, at the prospect of a bilateral treaty with nationalist China on the basis of the Truman-Churchill agreement.

Foreign please pass to Washington as my telegram No. 9
