Addressed to Washington telegram No. 434 of 22nd January, Repeated for information to Tokyo,
and Saving to Singapore No. 22.

Your telegram No. 186 [16th January]: Sino-Japanese relations.

Please thank Acheson for his message. I am grateful to note his promise that Americans will re-state the position I have always taken if questioned on the British attitude. This will be helpful, since I have already been obliged to deny a report from Japan that the announcement had been made with the tacit consent of the Prime Minister. Line we are taking is that we have had no part, tacit or otherwise, in the drafting or publication of the letter.

2. Mr. Herbert Morrison tells me that he regards the letter as inconsistent with the views Dulles expressed to him in London and in the United States. You may, if you think fit, let Mr. Acheson know this.
